

Year 2

JIGSAW Summer 1 Unit 5

Relationships

Vocabulary

Good secret	A secret that is exciting and nice.
Worry Secret	A secret that makes you feel sad, worried and uncomfortable.
Appreciate	Be thankful for good things.
Problem solving	Find a way to fix something.
Compliment	Saying something nice about someone.

Social and Emotional - By this end of this unit I will be able to-

- I know the positive problem solving technique if I fall out with my friends is-
To stop and think what emotion I'm feeling.
Get ready to think about the other person's point of view
Go and say sorry to each other and forget about it.
- I can talk about how a 'good touch' makes someone feel and give an example of this and how a 'bad touch' makes someone feel and give an example of this.
- I know that I can trust someone and tell them my worries if-
I know them
they are honest
listen to me
stand up for me
don't ask me to keep worry secrets.
- I understand that I should be proud to get a compliment from a friend.

PSHE- By this end of this unit I will be able to-

- I know that I might have different emotions about each different member of my family.
- I know that a mum, dad and two children is a family stereotype but that not all families are like this and that is ok.
- I can tell you three things that might cause me to fall out with my friends.
- I can give an example of a 'good secret' e.g. a birthday surprise and a worry secret e.g. someone I don't know is talking to me online
- I know that no one can touch my private parts without explanation and only with my permission such as a doctor.
- I know that to appreciate someone you are thankful for what they do for you and can give three examples of this.
- I can tell you the right person to ask for help in my family or community in different situations e.g. If I was being bullied online I could tell my parents.

Types of families

We are all different and all happy.

Don't keep worry secrets, tell someone!

	Stop Think about how you're feeling. Angry? Upset? Disappointed? Let down? Try to calm these feelings so you can think about what's gone wrong.
	Get Ready Look at each other's point of view. Listen to how the other person sees it. Talk calmly about how you see it. Work out what's gone wrong.
	Mend The Friendship Say sorry if you need to (even if it's hard). Agree how to put it right. Do something fun together. Have a special 'make friends' sign, gesture or phrase (touch little fingers, say 'make friends, make friends...').

Reflection Questions

Ask me this-

What is a worry secret?

What is a family stereotype and is it correct?
